College of Forestry and Conservation students work and intern in natural resource professions while they’re earning their degrees. This practical experience helps them gain skills and make connections so they’re ready to land a professional position when they graduate.

- 95% of seniors held a job or internship related to their major while in school.
- 80% of jobs & internships were paid.
- 62% of student jobs were in Montana.
- 57% of jobs & internships were held during summer.
- 42% of students held at least two different jobs while in school.
- 160 different employers in the past four years.
- Students worked for The US Forest Service and the Montana DNRC employed the most students.

FIND YOUR OWN JOB
cfc.umt.edu/jobs