What is the Role of Council?
The SAF Council is the highest governing body in SAF. Its goal is to provide leadership and direction to the Society of American Foresters and to ensure the achievement of its mission.
Role of SAF COUNCIL

Some of the Council's duties include:

- determine the strategic plan for the Society and review it annually;
- review annual and long-range budget projections;
- review SAF national office programs as they relate to the mission;
Role of SAF COUNCIL

Some of the Council's duties include:

- serve as a communications link among the members of their voting district, HSD, the Forest Science and Technology Board, and Council regarding pertinent issues;

- represent SAF to the public
Role of SAF COUNCIL

Some of the Council's duties include:

- ensure that SAF operates at all levels in compliance with antitrust laws, as stated in our Antitrust Policy.
WHO SITS ON COUNCIL AND FOR HOW LONG?
The president, vice-president, immediate past-president, and 11 elected members (one from each voting district) serve on Council.
The vice-president is a Fellow or Professional Member elected by the voting membership of the Society for a three-year succession, without eligibility for re-election.
The vice-president serves one year as vice-president, one year as president, and one year as immediate past-president.
Each Council member, elected by his or her voting district, serves a three-year term and shall not serve consecutive terms nor be elected for more than two terms.
WHAT IS A VOTING DISTRICT?
Voting districts contain one or more state societies and/or provinces of Canada while conforming as much as possible to state society boundaries.
Voting districts must contain no fewer than 7 or more than 11 percent of the members of the Society eligible to vote.
